Hey Lauren,

A quick word to acknowledge your query. I'm routing your inquiry through various colleagues, so I hope one of them gets back to you before too long.

Thanks, R.

Subject: Interview request from NPR affiliate KPCC in Los Angeles for today

Hi Enesta – I'm writing from the NPR affiliate KPCC in Los Angeles to see if someone from the EPA can be available to join us live by landline phone in the 12:00-12:20 pm PT window to talk about the fallout from the Gold King Mine spill. We'd like to talk about how that spill will change the way that the EPA, and others, do these clean-ups. This would be on our public affairs program AirTalk with Larry Mantle.

Please let me know if someone from the EPA can be available to join us for this when you get a moment.

Thanks,

Lauren
